

SEWV Support Knowledge Base — 06: Phrase Express Exact Templates

Source: "Phrase express 1.0" doc (Ailsa's canned replies), copied as close to verbatim as possible. Use these as the primary starting point for drafts — copy the closest-matching template, then customize the bracketed/underlined parts for the specific student. This is the actual proven wording the team has been sending, not a paraphrase.

 A note on accuracy: some templates below reference discontinued products, old prices, or old links (flagged inline with  where obviously outdated). Where a template's core wording/structure is good but the specific price/link is stale, use the wording pattern and swap in the current price/link from 01-email-response-playbook.md / 03-products-pricing-and-current-promos.md. We'll refine these throughout this week as real cases come up.

Zoom / Fearless Fluency Chats

 This is a modular template, not a single block to always send in full. Match the response to what was actually asked — if a student asks "how do I join the weekly lesson," just send that one bullet + intro line, not all four. Only send the full breakdown if the student's question is genuinely broad ("what live events/community stuff do you offer?") or if they seem confused about the overall structure.

 Enrollment check required before sending: only include the Zoom Room info (link, Meeting ID, Passcode) if the student is a currently enrolled Fearless Fluency Club student. If they're not enrolled (e.g. just asking "can I talk with you?"), leave that part out — don't share the Zoom Room details with non-enrolled people. (Vanessa is looking into whether a Teachable connection could verify enrollment automatically — not set up yet, so this currently needs a manual check.)

Full template (for genuinely broad questions, or confused students — enrolled students only): Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! I host a weekly live streamed lesson in the Facebook group at 9:00 AM EST (New York time zone), and there's nothing you have to do to join, just click the group page, and the lesson will pop up automatically. Directly after this live streamed lesson, I host a Zoom call with any Fearless Fluency Club students who want to join.

- The weekly live streamed lesson on Facebook, 9:00 AM EST (New York time zone), automatic, just click the group page:
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1501481750153870>
- The Zoom call I host directly after, called Fearless Fluency Chats, 10:00 AM EST (New York time zone). Please try to join as close to 10:00 AM as possible, the room closes to new joiners around 10:08 AM once we move into breakout rooms. Zoom room:
<https://bit.ly/fearlessfluencyclub> Meeting ID: 871 7101 8794 Passcode: speak
- Many students also meet on Zoom together on their own, individually or in groups, I don't organize these. You can find them via the group's Events tab:
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1501481750153870/events>
- The last Sunday of the month after the live streamed lesson, I invite the person in the course who participated the most in the Facebook group (we call this the "MVP") to join me one-on-one to talk for a bit. All students can watch this and listen if they would like.

You're welcome to introduce yourself in the Facebook group and ask other members if they'd like to join you. To find Zoom meetings that other students have already created, you're welcome to check the Events tab (linked above), or you can scan the Facebook page (scroll down) and when you see a post about a Zoom meeting, you can comment or message the person directly. They'll give you the information about when they meet and what they talk about. :)

If you have any trouble finding any of these, feel free to tag me on Facebook and I'll help you find them directly.

I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Quick single-purpose replies (use instead of the full template when the question is narrow):

"How do I join the weekly lesson?"

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! I host a weekly live streamed lesson in the Facebook group at 9:00 AM EST (New York time zone), and there's nothing you have to do to join, just click the group page, and the lesson will pop up automatically:
<https://www.facebook.com/groups/1501481750153870>. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

"What's the Zoom info for Fearless Fluency Chats?" (enrolled students only)

Thanks for your email. Fearless Fluency Chats is my weekly Zoom call, held every Sunday at 10:00 AM EST (New York time zone), right after the Facebook live streamed lesson. Please try to join as close to 10:00 AM as possible, the room closes to new joiners around 10:08 AM once we move into breakout rooms. Zoom room: <https://bit.ly/fearlessfluencyclub> Meeting ID: 871 7101 8794 Passcode: speak I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

"How do I find other students' Zoom meetings?"

Thanks for your email. Many students meet on Zoom together on their own, I don't organize these myself, but you can find them via the Facebook group's Events tab: <https://www.facebook.com/groups/1501481750153870/events>, or by scrolling the group page for posts about upcoming meetings. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Listening skills / 30 Day Listening Challenge interest

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! I completely understand that improving your listening skills quickly is a priority for you right now. I have a 30 Day Listening Challenge that might be a great fit for you. [⚠️ use current link/pricing from file 03].

I hope that helps. If you have any questions, feel free to ask.

Variant — already purchased, wants full unlock: Thanks for your email. That sounds like a great plan. I have gone ahead and have given you "full access" to the Listening Challenge, so you can study whenever you're ready by logging in here:

https://speak-english-with-vanessa.teachable.com/sign_in with your username and password.

Variant — wants daily reminder emails: ⚠️ Needs manual handling, don't draft this one automatically. The original wording ("click the link in the email above") assumes a specific link exists in whatever the student is replying to — that's not something Claude can verify without Teachable access, and it may not be true depending on the actual thread. Route this to the high-priority/Admin Actions Needed folder for a human to handle until there's a way to confirm the student's actual enrollment/tag status (see the Teachable-connection open item in file 04). Original reference wording, for the human handling it: "If you would like to receive daily reminder emails, you can click the link in the email above, and you should receive them. If you have any trouble or need more assistance with that in the future, just let me know. :) Keep up the good work with English!"

Variant — not ready to purchase: If you're not ready to purchase a course at this time, you can practice your listening skills for free with me on YouTube here: https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Rr_t9OvBjws&list=PLKWcPfZiScgApTbS43FUY2BI7Vatt1-r-. Keep up the good work with English!

Response delay / patience ("please reply," "why haven't you answered")

Use for anyone pushing for a faster response, on anything — not specific to the Speaking Challenge. Thanks for your email. I apologize for the inconvenience with the delay. Our teachers are working hard to get responses back to all students, and messages are responded to in the order they are received. Our teachers will be working to get a response to you as soon as possible!

Recurring/subscription charge confusion — refund

✓ Verification step (confirmed working): the reminder email is "[NOTICE] Payment coming soon" — a sequence email (not a broadcast), sequence name "FFC: MM Payment Coming Soon" (Kit sequence ID 2710667, email ID 9690443).

Before sending this reply, verify the specific student actually received it:

1. Look up the student by email (`Kit:list_subscribers` or `Kit:get_subscriber`).
2. Check whether they're in the "FFC: MM Payment Coming Soon" sequence (`Kit:list_subscribers_for_sequence`, sequence ID 2710667) — this sequence has only ~10 subscribers at a time (people currently in the 1-day wait before their card is charged), so presence here indicates they received the reminder.
3. If found/received it: use the template below as-is.
4. If NOT found / didn't receive it: don't claim they were reminded — flag this to Vanessa, since it suggests the reminder automation may have failed for this student and needs investigation.

Thank you for your email, and I'm sorry about the problem. You signed up for an automatically renewing monthly membership. I sent you an email reminder a few days ago to let you know that the payment date was coming soon. Having said that, it's no problem to refund your money. I refunded your purchase, and you should receive the money in 5-10 days. I hope this helps. If you have any questions, feel free to ask.

Only unsubscribed from newsletter, not membership — refund + fix

Thanks for your email. I'm sorry for the confusion. It looks like you unsubscribed from my email newsletter, but you did not cancel your subscription to my course. I will do that now for you and refund your money. You should see the money back in 5-10 business days. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Used the new-student coupon multiple times

Thanks for your email, and I'm sorry about the confusion. The "NEW" coupon to pay $5 is for new students to the course so they can try out the Monthly Membership. It looks like you've joined for one month at a time and canceled [X] times, and I apologize for the confusion there! I'll refund your money, and you should see it back in 5-10 days. I'll also "unsubscribe" you from my emails so you don't get those sales emails again. If you do decide you'd like to join the course again for $35 per month on a monthly basis, you can do that here: [ current link]. Thank you for understanding, and keep up the good work with English!

Facebook join request pending

Thanks for your email and patience with this. I try to process all of the requests within 24 hours, but sometimes it takes me a little longer. As you can imagine, there are a lot of requests every day from students not enrolled in the course. To make sure it is safe and productive for all students, I try to be thoughtful as I go through the requests. As long as you used the code "English is fun" when you sent the request, you have been approved. If you didn't use the secret code, please go back and send another request with it. That will help me make sure it is you. Thanks for your patience, and if you have any questions, feel free to ask.

Banned/restricted countries (governmental restrictions)

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Unfortunately due to governmental restrictions, students in [country] can't join the course. I am so sorry about that, and I wish that things were different so you could join. You can keep learning with me on YouTube here: <https://www.youtube.com/user/theteachervanessa> if you'd like, and you're welcome to unsubscribe from my emails by clicking "unsubscribe" if you no longer want to receive them.

Keep up the good work with English!

Variant — sanctions-affected countries, VPN mention: Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Unfortunately due to governmental restrictions, it seems that students in [country] can't join the course. I hadn't heard about this, but maybe it is a new law. I am so sorry about that, and I wish that things were different so you could join. Some students use a VPN to join the course because they are living in other countries with sanctions. You can keep learning with me on YouTube here: <https://www.youtube.com/user/theteachervanessa> if you'd like. Keep up the good work with English!

Payment method restrictions (card only)

Thanks for your email. Unfortunately, the only ways to pay for the course are with a credit card [or a PayPal account — only mention if the product actually supports PayPal, see file 03]. You're welcome to learn with over 400 free lessons here: <https://www.youtube.com/user/theteachervanessa>. Keep up the good work with English!

Russia / can't pay

Thanks for letting me know. I've heard from students in Russia that they have had trouble paying with their cards recently, so I'm not sure that it will work. It seems like there's an issue with international payments across the board. Unfortunately, at this time, credit cards are the only way to pay for the course. I wish things were different so you could join. Take care.

Variant, with hope/warmth added: Thanks for letting me know. I'm sorry for the inconvenience with your card. Unfortunately, at this time, credit cards are the only way to pay for the course. I wish things were different so you could join. I will be hoping for peace and a return to normalcy for you and your country. Feel free to keep watching those free lessons for now, and you're welcome to unsubscribe from my emails anytime by clicking "unsubscribe" at the bottom of this email. Keep up the good work with English!

Ukraine / conflict-affected, purely human response (no ask)

Thanks for your email. I'm so sorry the situation in [country] is scary and unsafe right now. Innocent people like you are caught in the middle. I'm so sorry. I will be thinking of you and hoping for peace and safety in your community. I'll unsubscribe you from my emails for now. Many hugs,

Naver / email provider blocking downloads

Thanks for your email. Some email service providers block or do not load links like this. On my end the links are live and working correctly. You just click them and the PDF downloads immediately. You might want to reach out to your email service provider or check your spam/junk folders to see if you need to do anything to receive the download links or add my emails to an "allowed" list. Many people who use "naver" have told me that they had to manually add me to their address "allow" list.

I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

No Facebook account

Thanks for your email. I totally understand that not everyone uses Facebook. Facebook is not required to join the course (it is hosted on a website called Teachable), but it is the only platform available to participate in the weekly live lessons and chat with other students. Some students make a Facebook account just for the purpose of joining the course and do not have personal photos or even use their real name. That's one option. The lessons are recorded in the group, so you can watch the re-play if you are busy during the live lesson.

I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Past live lessons — how to find recordings

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Video recordings of past live lessons are available for 30 days — click "Media" then "Videos" at the top of our Facebook group (screenshot 1: click Media, screenshot 2: click Videos), or search my name in the group to find them. For lessons older than 30 days, the video won't be there anymore, but the review worksheet for each past lesson is still available in the group's "FILES" section, going back a few years. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

English Worksheet Library — how to download the full ZIP

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Within the English Worksheet Library, there's a .ZIP file with all of the PDF worksheets so you can download them all at once. Here's a screenshot of where to find it:

https://drive.google.com/file/d/1tJmz26Y6G-Md8g8VkCHo3mnqy_-KV4Ej/view?usp=drivesdk. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

How to download Challenge lessons as a ZIP (Listening / Vocabulary / Phrasal Verb / Pronunciation Challenges)

Not about certificates — this is specifically for "how can I download the challenge lessons" questions, distinct from course-completion certificates (see that template separately). Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Within the challenge, there's a .ZIP file with all of the PDFs/materials so you can download them all at once. Here's a screenshot of where to find it (this example is from the Listening Challenge, but the same steps apply to the Vocabulary, Phrasal Verb, and Pronunciation Challenges — the page will just look slightly different):

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/16W3AmfgZDjeurLMakwadLUu8RTqUY-aM/view?usp=drivesdk>. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Live lesson timezone confusion

Thanks for your email, and I'm sorry about the problem. Unfortunately the live lessons are at the same time each week, 9:00 AM EST (New York time zone) on Sundays. It's challenging to find a time that works for every person, as we have students from all around the world. I apologize for the inconvenience.

You're welcome to watch the recording instead — see the "Past live lessons" reply above for how to find it. Keep up the good work with English!

Video download/re-upload requests — decline

Thanks for your email. I appreciate you thinking of me. Unfortunately, I can't allow for my YouTube videos to be downloaded and re-uploaded. Every day I receive several requests to do this, and it would be difficult for me to keep track of this. You are welcome to embed (link) my videos though! Thank you for understanding!

Variant — "react" videos, technically allowed: Thanks for your email. I appreciate you thinking of me. Usually I tell people "no" about re-uploading my videos, but with "react" videos, this is technically allowed with the YouTube rules, and I appreciate you asking. If you could just add a link to my channel in the description to give credit, that would be great.

Resubscribe after unsubscribing

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! It looks like you unsubscribed from my emails on [date], which includes emails and communication about the course. Unfortunately I can't resubscribe you myself, but to subscribe to my email list again, please:

- 1) Search your inbox/spam/trash folders for one of my automated emails where there is an "unsubscribe" button at the bottom.
- 2) Click the "unsubscribe" button, and an internet browser tab should pop up.
- 3) Click "resubscribe" from there.
- 4) Click "Yes, resubscribe me."
- 5) You should see a message that says "You've been resubscribed." if it was successful.

I'll attach a photo for you, and for now I'll manually enroll you in the lesson set so you can get started. If you have any questions, feel free to ask.

Alternative if a recent email can't be found:

- 1) Visit any recent YouTube video of mine.
- 2) Scroll down to the description box and find the link after "Download the free PDF worksheet for this lesson here"
- 3) Click the link.
- 4) Enter your email address and name and click "Download the free worksheet"
- 5) You should get an email confirming your subscription with the free PDF, and you will be subscribed again. :)

Failed payment — automatic retry

Thanks for letting me know. It's no problem at all; these things happen! The payment system will automatically try to charge your card again in a few days, so we can wait and see what happens then. If you have any questions, feel free to ask!

Variant — after 4th failed attempt (subscription auto-canceled): Thanks for your email. I'm sorry for the confusion. The payment system automatically tries to charge students' cards four times, and after the fourth failed payment, the subscription is automatically canceled. You're welcome to sign up again for $35 USD per month here: [ current link]. If you have any questions, feel free to ask.

Update/change credit card

Thanks for your email, and I'm sorry about the problem with the failed payment and your card. When you add a new card, there are a few steps to follow:

1. Log in here and click on your profile:
https://speak-english-with-vanessa.teachable.com/sign_in
2. Go to your profile and click "Add/Change credit card"
3. Enter your new card information and click "Update Credit Card"

Attached is a picture to show you how to do this. If you have any questions, feel free to ask!

When's my next payment

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! It looks like your payment was on the [date], so your next payment will be on or around that date. Sometimes payments can be one day before or after depending on the month. If you have any questions, feel free to ask. :)

Website down / temporary outage

Thanks for your email, and I'm sorry about the problem. My website was down and not working for a few hours, but everything should be back to normal now:

<https://speakenglishwithvanessa.com/>. Keep up the good work with English!

Currency / international payment

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! The course is in USD, but the website will automatically calculate and change this amount to your local currency. You can pay with any card that is valid for international purchases. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English! <http://www.speakenglishwithvanessa.com/fluency>

PDF/download button not working

Thanks for letting me know! Some email service providers block or do not load links like this. On my end the links are live and working correctly. You just click them and the PDF downloads immediately. You might want to reach out to your email service provider or check your spam/junk folders to see if you need to do anything to receive the download links or add my emails to an "allowed" list. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

"Where's my free PDF?" — just showing them where to find it (not troubleshooting)

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Your free PDF worksheet is inside the confirmation email you received — just click the download button in that email. Here's exactly what it looks like:

<https://drive.google.com/file/d/1Cjh2-KF0U0aJ487LyR0luCicLixinBPy/view?usp=drivesdk>. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Email address update request

Thanks for letting me know. I have updated this in my system, and you should receive my emails in the future at your new email address. I hope that helps! Keep up the good work with English.

Variant — name update: Thanks for letting me know. When you signed up to receive my emails, you wrote "[old name]", but I have updated your name in my system, so the change should happen within 24-48 hours. I hope that helps! Keep up the good work with English.

Kind/appreciative student email

Thanks for your kind email! I'm so glad you're enjoying my videos and PDFs. It's always nice to hear that students find them helpful, so thanks for taking the time to share that with me. :) Keep up the great work with English!

Fear/nervousness about speaking, considering joining

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! I completely understand how scary it can be to speak in front of others in another language. Many students in my course, The Fearless Fluency Club, have mentioned similar things to me about feeling nervous or scared when having to speak in front of other people. You're definitely not alone! My courses are all self-paced learning, which means that students learn on their own with videos, PDFs, and audio files. If you do decide to join the course, you could start studying on your own and join our live lessons where just I am speaking and students are typing (no camera). Then if you'd like, you could join other students later to practice speaking via Zoom and our private Facebook group.

Feel free to keep learning with me on YouTube free here:

<https://www.youtube.com/user/theteachervanessa>. Keep up the good work with English!

Variant — already a student, still nervous: Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! It's great that you're enjoying the course so far. I know not everyone feels comfortable talking out loud in another language with other people, and many people who have joined The Fearless Fluency Club have shared similar things with me when they first started. It's okay to take your time and build up your confidence and comfort to take the risk of chatting with other members. One idea is to join our live lessons Sundays at 9 AM EST (New York time zone) and type your answers, and I read them out loud. The last Sunday of the month after the live lesson, I invite the person in the course who participated the most in the Facebook group (the "MVP") to join me one-on-one to talk for a bit. All students can watch this and listen if they would like, so that's another idea of how you could slowly "ease" into the speaking process. Then you could join a Zoom meeting and practice your speaking skills. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Course feedback / suggestion received

Thanks so much for sharing! Your input helps me understand my students' needs better, and I appreciate that! I understand that it's not always the right time to study. You're welcome to join us at any point in the future or click "unsubscribe" if you no longer want to receive my emails. Take care, and keep up the good work with English!

Rude unsubscribe request

After signing up, recipients can always unsubscribe from my emails by clicking "unsubscribe" in the bottom, right-hand corner of these emails anytime. I'll go ahead and remove you now. Take care.

Financial hardship (long/heartfelt version — see playbook #19 for when to use this vs. deleting)

I completely understand how important financial considerations are.

No YouTube/video access in a country

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Unfortunately due to governmental restrictions, students in [country] can't join the course. I am so sorry about that, and I wish that things were different so you could join. Keep up the good work with English!

Kids/children's English resources

Thanks for your email. All the students who learn with me are adults. I'm happy to help you with some suggestions for your kids, though. Depending on their ages, I recommend focusing on fun things like songs, videos, and books in English. That helps children feel like they're playing games and enjoying themselves while they learn! For ages 4 and under, I recommend the Little Bear channel: <https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCncFzSeWqySvOXEbQoEJsZg>. For ages 4 and up, Wild Kratts is a great option: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=KX2Hzjl0XO4>. If they're older kids, I recommend watching some videos in English about their interests: if they like sharks, you could watch a clip talking about sharks in English, for example. You can also check out my list of suggested children's books here:

<https://www.amazon.com/shop/speakenglishwithvanessa?listId=3UEYFLT9SQ7WI>. I also recommend checking out my friend English with Brittany's YouTube channel, she focuses on teaching English that parents can teach their children:

<https://www.youtube.com/channel/UCRjkwjGTRyaXII4F-ywMQMg>. I hope that helps!

French language requests

Thanks for your email. I don't offer French lessons at this time. There are some great teachers on iTalki.com, and I know that some people really enjoy Hugo's Inner French program as well. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

In-person/local classes

Thanks for your email. I totally understand that everyone has their preferences for studying English, but all of my courses are self-paced, online learning. While I don't offer in-person classes, I do have something that might be a great fit: Vanessa AI! It's my AI conversation partner, available anytime day or night, so you can get unlimited speaking practice with instant feedback on your grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation. You can try it out with a free 7-day trial (annual plan): [Vanessa AI link — see file 03]. If you're specifically looking for in-person offerings in your city, you could also try an internet search for "English lessons near me" or "English teacher [your city]." I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Gift / using someone else's card

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! If your friend would like to buy you a course as a gift, you're welcome to use their card. [⚠️ payment method rules per product — see file 03]. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Age — too old to start

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! I know it can be hard to start learning or practicing another language later in life, but it's never too late! There are adults of all ages in my course, from 18 to over 80. :) I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Age — best for adults

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! The course is best for students ages 18 and up. Feel free to keep learning with me on YouTube here:

<https://www.youtube.com/user/theteachervanessa>. I hope that helps. You seem very motivated!

Community — students from all around the world

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! You're welcome to join our diverse community of students. There are people in our community studying the course from all around the world. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

No specific Business English course

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! I don't have any specific courses for Business English at this time. All my courses focus on English that is useful in many daily conversations. :) If you'd like to watch YouTube videos with me instead, you can search "business" or "meeting" on my channel here:

<https://www.youtube.com/user/theteachervanessa>. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Can't find account / wrong email, no active membership found

Thanks for your email, and I'm sorry about the confusion. When I look up your email address "[email]", I don't see any payments or an active membership. I'm curious if you signed up under another name or email address. If so, let me know, and I'll see if I can find any more information.

Corrections/feedback on writing or pronunciation

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! If you would like feedback on your pronunciation based on the Fearless Fluency Club pronunciation lesson, you're welcome to send a recording of yourself saying the sentences from that lesson.

Other than that, we don't offer speaking feedback based on material outside of the course. This is based on our legal terms and conditions (<https://speakenglishwithvanessa.com/terms-and-conditions/>) for course students. If you have any questions about this policy, feel free to ask.

Variant — sentence corrections via doc: Thanks for your email and for sharing your practice sentences with me. :) I'm happy to give you some corrections on your sentences. It's easier for me to give you feedback on a Google Doc or a Word Doc, so in the future that would be great. :) If you have any questions about what I wrote, feel free to ask.

No Facebook — is it required

[See "No Facebook account" above — same template]

Course completion certificate (30-Day Challenges)

Thanks for letting me know you finished the 30 Day Listening Challenge! You worked really hard every day and have a lot to be proud of. It's great that you were not only able to practice your listening skills but learn some new vocabulary and expressions as well.

I'd like to send you your well-earned Certificate of Completion.

What should you do now that the course is over?

1. You can start the course again or go back and review the most difficult days here: https://speak-english-with-vanessa.teachable.com/sign_in
2. You can keep challenging your listening skills — [⚠️ mention current relevant upsell/discount per file 03/promo calendar]
3. You can test your skills with a follow-up video for native English speakers with good subtitles.

Thanks so much and keep up the good work with English!

Speaking Challenge completion certificate

Note: the Speaking Challenge (SC2) is not evergreen — it only runs during a specific live window (promo period or active course run), so emails about it should be rare outside of those windows.

Thanks so much for sharing your experience with the challenge with me. It sounds like speaking every day was a great habit that helped you grow. I'll attach your well-earned certificate of completion to this email.

What should you do now that the course is over?

- You can always log in here: https://speak-english-with-vanessa.teachable.com/sign_in with your username (email address) and password to see the challenge. You'll have lifetime access to the course on Teachable.
- You'll still have access to your Vanessa AI conversation history from the challenge, so you're welcome to review your speaking practice and feedback there anytime.
- [⚠️ mention current FFC discount offer for challenge completers per current promo]

As long as you're subscribed to my email list, you'll be the first to know about new challenges and courses in the future, too. Keep up the good work with English!

Subtitles / translation offer from a student

Thanks for your email and your kind offer to translate my videos. I really appreciate the thought, but I only offer English subtitles, this helps students stay immersed in English while they watch. As for using my video, as long as you're linking or embedding from my YouTube channel (and not downloading/re-uploading), it's legal to use YouTube content like that. I hope that helps and thanks for reaching out!

Variant — Teachable subtitles question: Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Yes, you can click on the "subtitles" button to make sure they're turned on in Teachable. I'll add a photo for you here. If you have any questions, feel free to ask.

Bounced/blocked emails — Teachable safelisting

I reached out to Teachable's customer service team, and they told me that all emails to your email address are not being accepted by your email service provider. To fix this, you will have to safelist Teachable's email domains. First, you should check secondary folders for emails from Teachable or Speak English with Vanessa, including the spam/junk, promotions, updates, and "all mail" folders, and then move any Teachable-related emails from those folders to the primary inbox. This will communicate to the email service provider that these are trusted senders. You can also safelist Teachable's email domains, which is sometimes referred to as adding to the "safe sender list." For a detailed guide to this process, follow the link below: PDF guide: How to safelist Teachable's email domains: <https://share.teachable.cloud/WnuxbR7v>

Once you have done this so that you can receive emails, please let me know, and I will ask Teachable's customer service team to manually send the confirmation email to you again. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Teaching resources for English teachers

Thanks for your email. All the students who have access to my materials are students in my paid course, The Fearless Fluency Club. Here are some great free teaching resources you can check out:

- My YouTube channel: <https://www.youtube.com/user/theteachervanessa>
- American English (US State Dept): <https://americanenglish.state.gov/resources>
- VOA English: <https://learningenglish.voanews.com/>
- Breaking News English: <https://breakingnewsenglish.com/>
- British Council's Learn English program:
<https://learnenglish.britishcouncil.org/skills/speaking>

- Cambridge English:
<https://www.cambridgeenglish.org/teaching-english/resources-for-teachers/general-english-resources/>

I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Sharing course access with the sender's own students

Thanks for your question! I'd love to help you figure that out — could you let me know how many students you're hoping to share access with?

If they reply with a number under 5: Thanks for letting me know! That's no problem at all. You're welcome to share the course materials with your students for educational purposes. The best way to do this is to give students your login and password so that they can log in and view the material on the course website. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

If they reply with 5 or more: ⚠️ Do not answer yet — tag Vanessa. This is a case-by-case call and she may want to offer a different price depending on the course involved.

Student is also an English teacher, enjoying the course

Thanks for your email! Even though you're an English teacher yourself, too, it's great that you're enjoying my lessons and finding them helpful. We have a few English teachers from around the world in our private community, The Fearless Fluency Club, and they say that the course has helped them learn new expressions, phrasal verbs, and natural pronunciation. That's one option for you, if you're interested. If not, that's okay too. :) Take care!

Someone shares hardship/loss, not asking for anything specific

Thanks so much for letting me know. I wish things were different so you could continue studying with us, but feel free to look over the materials you've purchased by logging in here:

https://speak-english-with-vanessa.teachable.com/sign_in. You're welcome to stay active in the Facebook group too, if you'd like. I will keep you, your family, and your community in my thoughts during these challenging times and hope for peace and safety soon.

Timezone conversion help

Thanks for your email. My live lessons on Facebook are always at the same time each week (9:00 AM EST, New York time zone). You're welcome to use a website like timeanddate.com/worldclock/converter.html or worldtimebuddy.com to figure out what time that is in different timezones. Other Zoom meetings are set up and managed by students in the course, so there are meetings at all different times to choose from! I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Wants more structure/routine in a self-paced course

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! I do understand what you mean — having more of a sense of structure would be helpful. A few ideas:

- If you log in and click "START HERE", you can scroll down and see a daily guide that outlines how to best study the lesson along with some other helpful tips.
- Set a specific schedule for yourself — study each morning for 20 minutes, or 15 minutes at night, or set aside one day a week for an hour or two.
- Join Sunday live lessons at 9 AM EST (New York time zone) to hear natural use of that week's focus, or watch the recorded replay via "Media" → "Videos" in the group.
- Set up a regular time to practice speaking — introduce yourself and your goal in the Facebook group to find a partner or group, or try the Zoom Room (Fearless Fluency Chats, Sundays 10 AM EST — New York time zone).

I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Busy schedule, multitasking tips

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! It sounds like you've got a busy daily routine, which I totally understand. One idea is downloading the MP3 file from the lesson set you're studying and then listening to it while you commute to work or while you're cooking or cleaning at home. Sometimes that helps people feel like they're maximizing their time and can study while doing other things. :)

Attaching a photo/screenshot for reference

I'll attach a photo for reference.

Asking student to send a screenshot

Please attach a screenshot (photo) of what you see so I can best help you.

Where are you from / American vs British English

Thanks for your email! I'm so glad you're learning English with me. I'm from the US, and my courses and channel all focus on American English. I hope that helps! Keep up the good work with English.

Why do I get automatic/free emails ("are you even real")

Thanks for your email. You're subscribed to receive my newsletters and PDFs. These are free of charge and sent automatically. My course, The Fearless Fluency Club, is a paid course where students can interact with me and each other. You do not have to join my paid courses to receive my free emails, and you can unsubscribe anytime by clicking "unsubscribe" above. Keep up the good work with English!

Writing skills focus (not a core course focus)

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! My course does not focus specifically on writing skills, but there are many opportunities to practice writing in English if that's your focus. Each module also has a "story" where you can write out verbs and other words to practice your grammar, and there are also vocabulary and grammar questions you can answer in writing. This is a great way to practice, and students can send me their writing for feedback, too. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

Two Teachable accounts / merge attempt

If a student has an old Teachable account, there's a "connect to my school" feature that can link it to the main account before defaulting to "you'll have two accounts" — see Teachable's own support article on connecting accounts.

OTP login confusion

Thanks for your email, and I'm sorry about the problem. You may see some new changes to the course login page. To log into the course website, you can now use a one-time password (OTP) which is a code sent to your email address each time you log in, or the password you chose when you signed up for the course. You can always log in here:

https://speak-english-with-vanessa.teachable.com/sign_in with your username (email address) and choose the password option you'd like to use — here's what that looks like: logging in with OTP or logging in with a password. If you do not want to use an OTP code, you can click the "login with password instead" link at the bottom of the page. If you have any questions, feel free to ask.

"Power pack" resource not found

⚠ Currently inactive — this was a limited-time bonus, not part of the current welcome emails. Unlikely anyone remembers/asks about it, but if a student does reference it by name, here's the resource: <https://drive.google.com/file/d/1T6NDmbfBNpNbzdAf8BnbriEf9sXvZy3/view?usp=sharing>. May return in the future as a promo/bonus add-on — check with Vanessa before treating this as a current, standard offer.

Private/1:1 lessons request

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad you're learning English with me! While I don't offer private 1:1 lessons, I do have something that might be an even better fit: Vanessa AI! It's my AI conversation partner, available anytime day or night, so you can get unlimited speaking practice with instant feedback on your grammar, vocabulary, and pronunciation. It's like having a personal tutor without the scheduling. You can try it out with a free 7-day trial (annual plan) to see if it's a good fit for you: [Vanessa AI link — see file 03]. If you're still looking for a human 1:1 tutor, I also recommend iTalki.com.

Holiday/warm wishes received

Thanks for your email and the warm [holiday] wishes. I hope you and your family have a lovely holiday too. Keep up the good work with English!

Update email/username on file

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad you're learning English with me. It's no problem to tell you how to edit your email address and update other information. You can log into the course website here: https://speak-english-with-vanessa.teachable.com/sign_in and click "edit profile." Then, you should be able to edit your name, password, and email address (username). I'll attach some photos to this email so you can see those steps. If you would like to change the email address on file where you receive my emails and newsletter too, please let me know and I can do that for you.

Quiz — how it works

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Each section of every lesson set has its own quiz, and you can scroll down to the bottom of the page to see the quiz. From there, you click on the response you think is correct and then press "Continue," and the answer will appear. I'll attach some photos. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!

"Complete and Continue" button

You need to click the red button "Complete and Continue" at the top of each lesson to show the % progress. It's not necessary, but if you want to do that, you can. If you have any more questions, feel free to ask!

Phone/device/app access

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad you're learning English with me! Most students use a computer to access the lessons, but you are welcome to use a smartphone or tablet that has internet access. All of the lessons are also available to be downloaded as MP3 files, so you can download them and listen to them when you are driving or not at home, for example. :) I hope that helps! Keep up the good work with English.

Facebook post encouragement

You're welcome to post in the group to introduce yourself and comment on other students' posts too. Many people meet every week in different groups, and you can scroll down this page to see the information. You can also click on the "Events" tab. We have live lessons Sundays at 9:00 AM EST (New York time zone). I hope that helps!

Secret code reminder

The secret code is in this email (see above). You just have to type the words "English is fun" like I wrote in the email. Thanks!

Payment security concerns

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Yes, I totally understand that online security is very important, especially when it comes to making payments. My main website doesn't use a special SSL server, but the payment website uses a secure server. If you click any button in the course, you will see the secure setting in the URL. I hope this helps.

Visa/study-abroad/work help requests

Thanks for your email. I'm so glad that you are learning English with me! Unfortunately I'm not able to help people with visas or work/study issues. If you'd like to learn English with me, feel free to check out my YouTube channel here: <https://www.youtube.com/user/theteachervanessa> or my courses here: <https://speakenglishwithvanessa.com/fluency/>.

China — platform/social media questions

Thanks for your kind email, and I understand that there are many students in China who are interested in learning English. Students who are interested in learning with me are welcome to check out my website here: <https://speakenglishwithvanessa.com/fluency/>. I hope that helps. Keep up the good work with English!
